Interview Roulette
Switch to flash

1. Why don't you start by telling me a little about yourself?

2. Tell me about a conflict you had to deal with.

3. How would you move Mount Fuji?

4. What are your salary expectations?

5. Your network is experiencing periods of slow response, and you are asked to find a solution. What troubleshooting techniques would you use?

6. Tell me about a time you had a particularly heavy course load. How did you manage that?

7. What is your greatest weakness?

8. Tell me about the last time you failed to complete a project on time.

9. What do you like to do in your spare time?

10. Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

11. Tell me about a decision you made that turned out to be the wrong one.

12. Why do you want to work for us?

Why don't you start by telling me a little about yourself?

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the 'Answer Builder: Saved Stories' page of the BYU Marriott School. The page has a blue header with the BYU Marriott School logo and navigation links: Learn, Practice, My Tools, My Videos, and Assignments. A user profile for 'Zac' is visible in the top right. Below the header, there is a green 'Add a Story' button. The main content area features a table with four columns: #, Name, Competencies, Date, and Actions. The table lists four saved stories, each with an 'Export' and 'Edit' button in the Actions column. At the bottom of the table, there is a 'Support' button with an upward arrow.

Getting started

Take a moment to give your story a name.

Outline the problem or task

What approach did you take?

What were your results?

Try to pick a name that's descriptive so you remember if it was customized for a particular company or position (e.g. Communication Skills - Senior Mgmt Presentation - XYZ Company)

Enter story name here
